FOREWORD

Another milestone to the road of final achievement has been reached with the presentation of this annual pictorial report. We, the Staff, appreciate the many helpful hints and ideas commended for the format contained herein. We admit, that we are far from achieving success, as you - the ABBEYMEN - had visions for this 1957 Annual. But, many new features have been incorporated into this volume, and which we hope, will meet with your approval.

Because YOU requested it, we present in capsule form the history of your ALMA MATER.

1. Belmont Abbey College is one of the oldest Catholic Educational institutions in the South.
2. Its history dates back to October of 1876 when classes were first held.
3. The September of 1878 marked the official opening of St. Mary's College, as it was then known.
4. The College was chartered according to North Carolina State Law on April 1, 1886, with all the rights and privileges of Colleges and Universities in North Carolina.
5. The announcement of the change of name from St. Mary's College to BELMONT ABBEY COLLEGE was made on November 27, 1913.

6. The first President of the College was The Right Reverend Leo Haid, O.S.B., D.D.
7. The second President of the College was The Right Reverend Vincent G. Taylor, O.S.B., D.D.
8. The third President of the College is The Very Reverend Cuthbert E. Allen, O.S.B., L.L.D.
9. On April 3, 1956, The Very Reverend Walter A. Coggin, O. S. B., Ph. D., became Chancellor of the College, with The Right Reverend Vincent G. Taylor, O.S.B., D.D., as President-Emeritus.

Facing with pride the eightieth year, Belmont Abbey College marches onward with a stride of a giant in the educational circles. Her graduates are testimony of Her greatness because of Her smallness.

enrich October sunsets...

It's not too exciting!

The most easily recognized and the most undeniable spirit prevails during basketball season. But this is just a means to express the very same way we feel during the entire school year. Most people wrongly equate the entire amount of school spirit to the loudness of the cheers or the number of cheerleaders; but this is not true we have to take in the whole picture of that constant undercurrent of feeling that is always there.

November cheers fill the air...

Something "new"
has been added.

This feeling of school spirit should not and is not a passive thing, it is a living and active state. A passive idea of school spirit leads one to a complacent acceptance of modes of action without any thought of change, not just change for itself, but change that not only enhances the individual but also the entire student body. It is this idea of active, creative school spirit that prompted the Student Government to initiate a new dance program that would do just this.

January New Year's resolutions

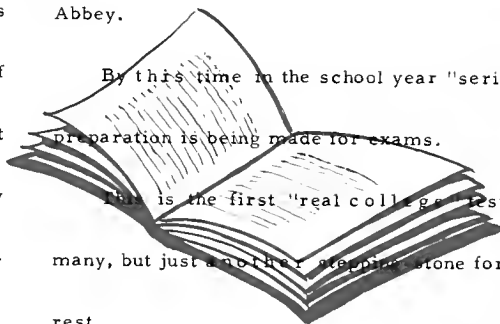

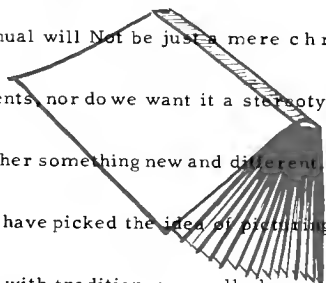

You'll not keep that New Year's resolution at the "Casbah"

As we have said before we hope that this annual will Not be just a mere chronology of events, nor do we want it a stereotyped book, but rather something new and different. This is why we have picked the idea of picturing what, keeping with tradition, generally happens here at the Abbey.

By this time in the school year "serious" preparation is being made for exams.

This is the first "real college" test for many, but just another stepping stone for the rest.

To study more

"The Teachers" are taught

Basketball is still the major sport, and the "Casbah" is the scene of the minor sports. The Freshmen-in keeping with President Dick Bain's maturation program(?) - has been thoroughly introduced to "Pete" in the back room of the Towne House.

February Sentiment...

The opening ceremonies for the annual retreat for the college students is quite inspiring.

"..... a monastery garden"

and Lenten denial

In the midst of the sacrificial season of Lent, the Abbey enjoys a night of celebration ---- that of March 17, the feast of Saint Patrick. And for sure, it's a great day for the Irish, all the way from the Saint Patrick's parade in New York to the Knight's of Columbus celebration in Savannah to the green beer served right here at Dents.

The Saint Patrick's Dance is another example of the "spirit" here at the Abbey, as in the picture below perhaps you don't recognize any of the faces, but you can't help noticing the same traditions, the same customs that unmistakably brand you an "Abbeyman".

June, "that day" has finally arrived after years of seemingly endless waiting; it has dawned. You - the graduates of 1957 - have always looked to this day with much longing and now it brings a certain amount of fear and trepidation. You will look back on your school days with many remembrances, and it is through this book, we hope, they will be fond memories.

THE SENIOR CLASS

The 1957 Graduating Class can look back upon their final year with much pride and satisfaction.

At the head of this energetic class is New England's pride, Joe Coyle. Joe was ably assisted by Dick Tengel, Chairman of the Student Government's Dorm Committee, Jack Santos and Jim Daffron, from Charleston S. C. and Richmond Va. respectfully, and Pudgy Lloyd from Charlotte, as Student Government Representative.

THE JUNIOR CLASS

In September of 1956, the Junior Class showed remarkable foresight in selecting the president who was to lead them in the coming year. A hard-working day student from Gastonia, Lee Waters was of invaluable service not only to the class, but to the entire school.

The Juniors in rounding out the class slate, selected for a second term, Joe Ruiz, from Augusta, Georgia, as Vice-President; Larry Picard, Charleston, S. C., as Secretary; Tom O'Connor, from Charlotte, as Treasurer, and Chuck Richardson, from Charlotte, as Student Government Representative.

THE SOPHOMORE CLASS

Following the precedent set by the 1956 Sophomore Class, the Sophs this year held the annual Christmas Formal off-campus. The site for this gyratorical inebriate fete was the Chelsea Room of the Hotel Charlotte, with music furnished by the nationally known Stan "the Man" Alexander featuring Miss Nancy Steward as vocalist.

Heading up the list of the Sophomore despots is John Barret from Miami, Fla., ably supported by Dan Bain from Crozet Va. as Vice-president, Marc Brewer as Secretary, Phil Forester as Treasurer, and Thomas William Campbell as Student Government Representative.

THE FRESHMAN CLASS

In a red-hot battle at the beginning of the school year, the Freshmen Class elected Harrill Jones, from Gastonia, as President. Also elected at that time were: Marc Wyndelts as vice-president, Frank Schaffestedde as secretary, Pat McDermott as treasurer, and Joe Munzenrider as Student Government Representative.

The Freshmen had it upon their shoulders to put on the annual Saint Patrick's Dance held on March 17. The dance was held in the gym with music by Gene Wallace and his Statesmen.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

The Student Government was formed to conduct student activities in order to breed initiative and leadership in the students. The general aim of this vital organization is to cultivate and develop the powers of self-government and to instill into the students a sense of their responsibility to God, to their country and to themselves. This year's council sponsored such activities as: student assistance tax, the Hungarian program, Freshman Orientation, and the election of Cheerleaders from Sacred Heart College and Mercy Hospital.

CONTACT

The driving force behind the vastly improving CONTACT, was the crusading young editor from Hampton, Virginia, Bob Curran. Curran worked up from the ranks; first as the writer and originator of ---"The Fish Bowl"; then he proceeded to the backpage where he wrote "The Water Bucket" and then, the final crown as Editor-In-Chief.

His policies have remained unchanged following in the tradition of his predecessors of putting the truth first and then having the courage of his convictions to maintain it.

THE SPIRE

Manion and McDonnell talk over some really big plans for THE SPIRE.

The record of the days that are no more, the familiar faces, the old haunts, that were so much an intimate part of life at the Abbey, and are forever preserved here in the Spire for later years. In a sense THE SPIRE is a personal diary of the four years considered by most to be the best.

In later years when the feelings of nostalgia well over in the soul, this book will supply the need . . . majestic memory.

THE MONOGRAM CLUB

The Monogram Club is open only to those students who have earned their varsity letter in either basketball, baseball, tennis, golf, rifle, or served in the Service Club. Not being content to be a passive club as they have been in the past, this year's Monogram Club, headed by Senior basketball star Roger Marcil undertook and accomplished some startling new reforms. One of their major achievements was the restoration of the Tuck Shoppe into a habitable place.

For The Team.

The 1956-57 edition of the Crusaders was one of many changes. It marked the arrival of the new coach, Neild Gordon from Furman University, and, therefore a change in basketball tactics. The team on an average much smaller than previous seasons the emphasis was more on speed and fast breaks than reliance on the "big" men.

This marked also the last year of college ball for the graduating seniors: Jim Mead, Roger Marcil, Al Taglieri, and Frank O'Brien.
